Reviews in MEDICAL VIROLOGY

Editor

Professor Paul Griffiths, Department of Virology, Royal Free Hospital,
School of Medicine, Rowland Hill Street, London NW3 2PF, UK

Aims and Scope

Virologists are acquisitive investigators who wish to apply the latest scientific developments to their own work. The aim of Reviews in Medical Virology is therefore to provide them with articles reviewing conceptual or technological advances in diverse areas of virology. Topics covered will include the molecular biology, cell biology, replication, pathogenesis, immunology, immunization, epidemiology, diagnosis or treatment of viruses of medical importance.
